

SHOD

Meaning: 'Shod' refers to having been fitted with shoes, typically in the context of horses or footwear.

1. The horse was finally shod after a long wait at the blacksmith's.
2. She noticed the shoes were shod with a unique design that caught her eye.
3. Once the rider was shod and ready, they set off on their adventure.
4. The farrier was skilled in ensuring the horses were properly shod for racing.
5. After the storm, many of the local horses were found shod with worn-out shoes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shod>