

SHOPWORN

Meaning: Shopworn refers to an item, especially clothing or footwear, that shows signs of wear and fading due to prolonged use or display in a retail environment.

1. The shopworn jacket hung on the rack, its faded fabric telling stories of seasons past.
2. After years of heavy use, his shopworn shoes had become a familiar part of his daily routine.
3. She decided to donate her shopworn books to the local library, where they could find new readers.
4. The antique store was filled with shopworn treasures that held a certain charm despite their wear.
5. Shopworn furniture can often be restored to its former glory with a little bit of care and creativity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shopworn>