

SHORING

Meaning: Shoring is the process of supporting a structure with props or beams to prevent collapse during construction or renovation activities.

1. Shoring is often used in construction to support structures during renovations.
2. The engineers implemented shoring techniques to prevent the walls from collapsing during the excavation.
3. Proper shoring is crucial when working on deep foundations to ensure safety and stability.
4. As the old building was being dismantled, workers erected shoring to secure the adjacent properties.
5. The contractor explained that shoring would help maintain the integrity of the site while they worked.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shoring>