

SHOVE

Meaning: Shove: to push someone or something with a sudden, forceful movement.

1. She gave him a gentle shove to encourage him to join the conversation.
2. In a moment of frustration, he felt the urge to shove the papers off his desk.
3. The children were playfully shoving each other on the playground.
4. With a firm shove, she opened the heavy door that had been stuck for days.
5. He didn't mean to shove his way through the crowd, but he was in a hurry.
6. He gave the door a hard shove, hoping it would finally open.
7. During the argument, she felt a sudden urge to shove him away.
8. The children laughed as they tried to shove each other into the snowbank.
9. To fit the last box in the trunk, he had to shove it in at an awkward angle.
10. She felt a rush of adrenaline as she watched the crowd shove toward the stage.
11. He felt a sudden urge to shove the door open and rush inside.
12. In the crowded subway, people would often shove past each other to find a place to stand.
13. She didn't appreciate it when he tried to shove his opinions down her throat.
14. The kids began to shove each other playfully as they waited for the bus.
15. After a long day, he needed to shove aside his worries and focus on relaxation.
16. She gave him a gentle shove to encourage him to speak up.
17. The crowd began to shove each other as the concert started.
18. He felt a sudden shove from behind, causing him to stumble forward.
19. In a moment of frustration, she gave the door a hard shove to slam it shut.
20. The children loved to play games where they could shove each other playfully.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shove>