

SHRAPNEL

Meaning: Shrapnel refers to fragments of metal or other material that are propelled from an explosive device, often causing injury or damage.

1. The explosion scattered shrapnel across the battlefield, leading to injuries among the troops.
2. In his memoir, he described the terrifying moment when shrapnel flew past him during the attack.
3. The old artillery shell was still dangerous, filled with fragments of shrapnel from decades ago.
4. Medical personnel rushed to treat the victims, many of whom suffered from shrapnel wounds.
5. He carefully examined the piece of shrapnel lodged in the wall, a grim reminder of the violence that had occurred.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shrapnel>