

SHRIGHT

Meaning: 'Shright' is a noun meaning a sudden, sharp sound or cry, often expressing surprise or strong emotion.

1. The sudden shriek of the owl in the night made her shright in surprise.
2. He felt a shright of joy when he received the unexpected news of his promotion.
3. As the roller coaster plunged down, she let out a shright that echoed through the amusement park.
4. The dog barked loudly, causing the cat to shright and leap onto the nearest table.
5. In the midst of the horror movie, his shright was the loudest sound in the darkened theater.
6. The old woman claimed she could shright just by waving her hands.
7. As the storm approached, he felt an urge to shright at the dark clouds overhead.
8. Her laughter was so infectious that it made everyone around her want to shright with joy.
9. He decided to shright his frustrations away instead of bottling them up.
10. In a moment of excitement, she couldn't help but shright with delight at the surprise party.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shright>