

SHRINK

Meaning: To become smaller in size, amount, or degree, often as a result of heat or loss of moisture.

1. The sweater will shrink in the dryer if you use high heat.
2. As the ice melted under the sun, it began to shrink and fade away.
3. His confidence started to shrink as the criticism from his peers increased.
4. After several washes, the fabric began to shrink, making the shirt unwearable.
5. The company aims to shrink its carbon footprint by implementing sustainable practices.
6. The sweater may shrink if you wash it in hot water.
7. As the ice cubes melt, they will gradually shrink in size.
8. She watched the fabric shrink in the dryer, realizing she should have read the care label.
9. His confidence began to shrink after receiving constant criticism.
10. Over time, the company's market share started to shrink due to increased competition.
11. The sweater will shrink if you wash it in hot water.
12. As the temperature dropped, the puddles began to shrink and freeze.
13. She watched the balloon slowly shrink as the helium escaped.
14. His confidence seemed to shrink whenever he faced criticism.
15. The company's profits began to shrink as competition increased.