

SHRIVEN

Meaning: 'Shriven' refers to having been freed from sin or guilt, often through confession or repentance.

1. The monk entered the chapel, his face shriven and serene after hours of contemplation.
2. In the dim light of the confessional, she felt a sense of peace as her soul was shriven of guilt.
3. After a long session of prayer, he emerged from the sanctuary feeling shriven and renewed.
4. The shriven congregation listened intently as the priest spoke about forgiveness and redemption.
5. With each prayer, she felt her burdens lift, leaving her heart shriven and light.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shriven>