

SHRUFF

Meaning: SHRUFF (adjective): having a rough, stern, or unapproachable demeanor or appearance.

1. The old man had a shruff demeanor that made people think twice before approaching him.
2. Despite his shruff appearance, he had a heart of gold and always helped those in need.
3. She couldn't help but laugh at the shruff way he dismissed the compliments.
4. The shruff texture of the fabric made it difficult to wear comfortably.
5. After a long day, he felt too shruff to engage in any social activities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/shruff>