

SIBILANT

Meaning: SIBILANT: characterized by a hissing or sibilant sound, often produced by the pronunciation of certain consonants like 's' and 'sh'.

1. The sibilant sounds of the snake slithering through the grass were almost mesmerizing.
2. As she whispered secrets into my ear, her voice took on a sibilant quality that sent shivers down my spine.
3. The poet's use of sibilant consonants added a soothing rhythm to the otherwise harsh subject matter.
4. In the quiet of the night, the sibilant rustle of leaves created an eerie atmosphere.
5. His sibilant speech made it difficult to understand the words he was trying to convey.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sibilant>