

SIBILATORY

Meaning: SIBILATORY: producing a hissing or sibilant sound, often characterized by a smooth, flowing quality.

1. The sibilatory sounds of the snake slithering through the grass added an eerie atmosphere to the night.
2. In her speech, she used a sibilatory tone that captivated the audience with its melodic quality.
3. The linguist studied the sibilatory aspects of various languages to understand their phonetic patterns.
4. During the performance, the musician skillfully created sibilatory effects that resonated beautifully with the crowd.
5. The sibilatory whispers between the characters in the play heightened the tension in the scene.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sibilatory>