

SIBILOUS

Meaning: SIBILOUS: characterized by a hissing or whistling sound, often associated with whispers or soft speech.

1. The sibilous whispers of the wind through the trees created an eerie atmosphere.
2. Her sibilous voice seemed to echo through the empty hall, drawing attention to her every word.
3. The snake moved silently, its sibilous hiss warning all who dared to approach.
4. In the distance, the sibilous sound of the train's whistle could be heard as it approached the station.
5. The teacher's sibilous admonitions filled the classroom as she reprimanded the students for their misbehavior.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sibilous>