

SICCATION

Meaning: Siccation is the process of drying out or the loss of moisture, particularly in soil, which can affect its structure and agricultural practices.

1. The process of siccation can lead to significant changes in the soil structure.
2. Farmers need to be aware of siccation when planning their irrigation schedules.
3. Siccation of the clay caused it to crack and become less workable.
4. The researchers studied the effects of siccation on plant root development.
5. During the dry season, the siccation of wetlands can harm local wildlife.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/siccation>