

SIDED

Meaning: Sided (verb): to support or align oneself with a particular person, group, or position in a disagreement or decision.

1. He always sided with his friends during arguments.
2. The committee sided with the proposal to increase funding for education.
3. In the debate, she sided against the motion, believing it was unjust.
4. The players sided with their coach, supporting his decision to change the strategy.
5. After much deliberation, the jury sided in favor of the defendant.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sided>