

SIDELONG

Meaning: Sidelong: adverb meaning in a sideways or indirect manner, often suggesting a furtive or cautious approach.

1. She glanced sidelong at her friend, trying to gauge her reaction to the news.
2. The cat walked sidelong across the narrow ledge, balancing expertly as it went.
3. He gave her a sidelong look that conveyed both curiosity and skepticism.
4. As they strolled through the park, they exchanged sidelong glances filled with unspoken words.
5. The sidelong rays of the setting sun cast a warm glow over the landscape.
6. He glanced sidelong at his colleague during the meeting, sensing the tension in the room.
7. The cat approached the dog sidelong, wary of its size and energy.
8. She offered a sidelong smile, hinting at a secret shared only between them.
9. As the car passed by, he shot a sidelong look at the familiar house that held so many memories.
10. The children played in the yard, stealing sidelong glances at their parents watching from the porch.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sidelong>