

SIDEREALIZE

Meaning: To siderealize means to adjust or align one's understanding or observations with the positions and movements of celestial bodies in relation to the stars.

1. To siderealize our understanding of the cosmos, we must embrace the rhythm of celestial movements.
2. Astronomers often siderealize their observations to align with the positions of stars and planets.
3. The process to siderealize a calendar involves recalibrating it based on the stars' positions rather than the sun.
4. In her latest research, she aims to siderealize the timekeeping methods used by ancient civilizations.
5. To truly appreciate the universe, we need to siderealize our perspective beyond the confines of Earth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/siderealize>