

SIDETRACK

Meaning: SIDETRACK: To divert attention or focus away from the main task or topic, often leading to distractions or unrelated discussions.

1. She often finds herself getting sidetracked by social media while trying to finish her work.
2. The discussion started to sidetrack into unrelated topics, causing the meeting to run over time.
3. It's easy to sidetrack your goals with distractions, but staying focused is key to success.
4. He tried to sidetrack the conversation when asked about his recent project failures.
5. Their playful banter would often sidetrack the serious discussions we needed to have.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sidetrack>