

SIFFLEMENT

Meaning: Sifflement refers to a hissing or whistling sound, often produced by steam, wind, or other air movement.

1. The sudden sifflement of the kettle signaled that the water was boiling.
2. As the wind picked up, a soft sifflement echoed through the trees, creating an eerie atmosphere.
3. She turned to her friend, surprised by the sifflement of the old radiator that had just started to heat up.
4. In the quiet of the night, the distant sifflement of a train whistle could be heard.
5. The musician perfected his technique, producing a beautiful sifflement that captivated the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sifflement>