

SIGH

Meaning: SIGH: a long, deep breath that expresses fatigue, relief, or emotion.

1. She let out a weary sigh as she sank into the comfortable chair.
2. After a long day at work, his only response was a deep sigh of relief.
3. The child sighed dramatically, wishing he could stay outside a little longer.
4. With a heavy sigh, she closed the book and decided to take a break.
5. His sigh echoed in the empty room, a sound of longing and nostalgia.
6. She let out a deep sigh of relief after finishing her final exams.
7. With a heavy sigh, he stared out the window, lost in thought.
8. The cat sighed contentedly as it curled up on the warm windowsill.
9. As the news unfolded, many in the audience exchanged weary sighs of disappointment.
10. After a long day at work, she sank into her chair and sighed heavily.
11. She let out a deep sigh of relief when she finally received the good news.
12. After hours of searching for her lost keys, she collapsed onto the couch with a frustrated sigh.
13. With a wistful sigh, he reminisced about the carefree days of his childhood.
14. The teachers exchanged a knowing sigh as the students rushed in late for class.
15. As the rain started to pour, she sighed, realizing her plans for the picnic were ruined.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sigh>