

SIGHER

Meaning: SIGHER (noun): A person who frequently sighs, often indicating feelings of weariness, longing, or emotional burden.

1. The sigher in the corner seemed to carry the weight of the world on her shoulders.
2. With every sigh, the sigher expressed a deep sense of longing and regret.
3. As a professional sigher, he could convey emotions that words often failed to capture.
4. She was known as the sigher of the group, always exhaling dramatically during tense moments.
5. In the quiet cafe, the sigher brought a touch of melancholy to the lively conversation around her.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sigher>