

SIGHTPROOF

Meaning: Sightproof (adjective): designed to prevent visibility or observation, ensuring privacy from external view.

1. The new privacy screens were designed to be sightproof, ensuring that confidential information remained hidden from prying eyes.
2. She appreciated the sightproof curtains that allowed her to work late at night without disturbing her neighbors.
3. In their latest security upgrade, the company installed sightproof glass in all the conference rooms.
4. For the construction project, they specified sightproof materials to enhance the building's privacy features.
5. The sightproof shields in the observation deck provided an unobstructed view while blocking any outside glare.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sightproof>