

SIGN

Meaning: A sign is a display or symbol, often made of material like paper or neon, used to convey information or messages to the public.

1. The neon sign flickered intermittently, casting a colorful glow over the street corner.
2. She held up a sign that read "Welcome" as the guests arrived at the party.
3. It was a clear sign that the project needed a major overhaul after the latest review.
4. He interpreted the sign as an opportunity to change his career path entirely.
5. The map featured a large sign indicating the trailhead for the hiking path.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sign>