

SIGNABLE

Meaning: Signable: capable of being signed, typically referring to a document or contract that is ready and acceptable for signature.

1. The contract was deemed signable after all the necessary revisions were made.
2. She was relieved to discover that the agreement was signable without any legal complications.
3. During the meeting, they reviewed the terms to ensure everything was signable before proceeding.
4. His signature on the document made it officially signable and binding.
5. They needed to confirm that all parties involved agreed to the signable terms before finalizing the deal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/signable>