

SIGNALIST

Meaning: A signalist is a specialist who analyzes and interprets signals, such as light and sound, from various communication devices and systems.

1. The signalist carefully studied the patterns of light and sound emitted by the devices.
2. As a trained signalist, she was skilled at interpreting the complex communications of various systems.
3. During the training session, the signalist demonstrated how to effectively read the incoming data.
4. The team relied heavily on the expertise of the signalist to ensure accurate transmissions.
5. In his role as a signalist, he often had to troubleshoot issues on the fly to maintain connectivity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/signalist>