

SIGNIFICATIVE

Meaning: Significant: having meaning or importance; conveying significant information or implications.

1. The artist's use of color proved to be highly significant, conveying emotions that words could not express.
2. In her research, she identified several significant factors that contributed to the community's resilience.
3. The historian deemed the artifact significant, as it revealed insights into the culture of the ancient civilization.
4. During the meeting, his remarks were particularly significant, sparking a lively discussion among the participants.
5. The teacher emphasized the need to find significant connections between the literature and the students' own experiences.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/significative>