

SIGNIOR

Meaning: Signior: A title of respect or honor used to refer to a man, often implying nobility or social status, particularly in Italian-speaking contexts.

1. The signior greeted his guests with a warm smile as they entered the grand hall.
2. In the quaint village, the signior was known for his generosity and kindness to the locals.
3. With a deep bow, the signior acknowledged the applause from the audience after his captivating speech.
4. The signior's lavish lifestyle was often the subject of gossip among the townspeople.
5. As a signior of great influence, he held the power to sway decisions in the council.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/signior>