

SIGNIORIZE

Meaning: To signiorize is to embellish or enhance something, particularly an artwork or garment, with a distinctive signature or flourish to denote exclusivity or personal style.

1. The artist decided to signiorize her latest painting with an elegant flourish.
2. In the world of fashion, it's common to signiorize garments to enhance their exclusivity.
3. The chef was known to signiorize his signature dishes, adding a personal touch to each plate.
4. To signiorize a piece of furniture often involves adding intricate details that showcase craftsmanship.
5. They planned to signiorize the event with personalized invitations and luxurious decor.
6. The artist decided to signiorize his latest painting with a flourish to emphasize its importance.
7. In the final moments of the ceremony, the officiant instructed the couple to signiorize their vows with a unique flourish.
8. To mark the occasion, she chose to signiorize her invitation with elegant calligraphy and a personal touch.
9. As part of the branding strategy, they opted to signiorize their logo to make it more memorable and distinctive.
10. The writer's decision to signiorize the manuscript added a personal touch that resonated with readers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/signiorize>