

SILENT

Meaning: Silent: characterized by the absence of sound or speech.

1. The forest was silent, save for the occasional rustle of leaves.
2. She remained silent during the meeting, choosing to listen rather than speak.
3. A silent agreement passed between them, conveying what words could not.
4. The room fell silent as the clock struck midnight, marking the start of the new year.
5. His silent gaze spoke volumes, revealing emotions he couldn't articulate.
6. The library was silent, a sanctuary for those who sought refuge in books.
7. She remained silent, allowing her thoughts to swirl around without interruption.
8. In the silent night, the only sound was the soft rustle of leaves in the breeze.
9. His silent agreement spoke volumes more than words ever could.
10. The room fell silent as the speaker took the stage, capturing everyone's attention.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/silent>