

SILKEN

Meaning: Silken: resembling or made of silk; soft, smooth, and lustrous in texture.

1. The silken fabric draped elegantly over the table, catching the light beautifully.
2. She ran her fingers across the silken petals of the exotic flower, mesmerized by their softness.
3. His voice had a silken quality that made even the most mundane stories sound enchanting.
4. The silken threads of the tapestry told a story of love and loss through their intricate patterns.
5. As the sun set, the silken sky transformed into a canvas of vibrant colors.
6. The bride wore a silken gown that shimmered in the candlelight.
7. As the sun set, silken threads of pink and orange painted the sky.
8. She ran her fingers over the silken fabric, marveling at its softness.
9. The cat lounged on the silken cushions, basking in the warmth of the sun.
10. He admired the silken scarf, a delicate gift from his grandmother.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/silken>