

SILKMAN

Meaning: Silkman: a person who sells or specializes in silk and luxurious fabrics, often skilled in weaving and textile craftsmanship.

1. The silkman arrived in town with a cart full of luxurious fabrics.
2. As a skilled silkman, he was known for his ability to weave intricate patterns into every piece.
3. At the market, the silkman showcased his wares, attracting a crowd of eager buyers.
4. She admired the silkman's craftsmanship, each garment telling a story through its design.
5. The silkman shared tales of his travels across Asia, where he sourced the finest silks.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/silkman>