

SILKWORM

Meaning: A silkworm is the larval form of the silk moth, specifically bred and raised for the production of silk fibers.

1. The silkworm is an essential part of the silk production industry.
2. Farmers carefully cultivate silkworms to harvest their valuable silk fibers.
3. In ancient China, the secret of the silkworm was closely guarded for centuries.
4. Silkworms undergo a fascinating metamorphosis from larvae to pupae to moths.
5. The diet of a silkworm mainly consists of mulberry leaves, which are crucial for their growth.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/silkworm>