

SILL

Meaning: SILL: A horizontal ledge or surface at the bottom of a window or door frame.

1. The cat sat on the window sill, basking in the afternoon sun.
2. She carefully placed the potted plant on the sill to catch the morning light.
3. Rainwater dripped off the sill, creating small puddles on the ground below.
4. He leaned against the kitchen sill, watching the world go by outside.
5. The old house had a wooden sill that creaked whenever someone walked by.
6. The cat perched elegantly on the windowsill, surveying the garden.
7. He carefully placed the potted plant on the sill, allowing it to soak up the sunlight.
8. Raindrops trickled down the glass, pooling on the sill before spilling onto the floor.
9. She decorated the sill with colorful flowers to brighten up the dull room.
10. The old house had a wooden sill that creaked underfoot whenever someone walked by.
11. The cat perched on the windowsill, watching the world go by.
12. She placed the potted plant on the sill to catch the morning sunlight.
13. He leaned against the doorframe, resting his arm on the cool stone sill.
14. The old house had charming wooden sills that added character to each window.
15. Rainwater trickled down the sill, pooling on the ledge below.