SILUROID

Meaning: Siluroid refers to a type of fish belonging to the order Siluriformes, commonly known as catfish, characterized by their whisker-like barbels and typically found in freshwater environments.

1. The siluroid fish gracefully glided through the murky waters of the river.
2. Researchers discovered a new species of siluroid that exhibits unique behavioral traits.
3. Siluroids are known for their whisker-like barbels, which help them navigate their environment.
4. The local fisherman caught a large siluroid, which became the talk of the town.
5. In many cultures, siluroid fish are considered a delicacy and are often featured in traditional dishes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/siluroid