

SIMAR

Meaning: A simar is a traditional garment, often a long, flowing dress or tunic, typically worn by women, especially during festive occasions.

1. The bride wore a beautiful simar that shimmered in the sunlight.
2. During the festival, many women adorned themselves with colorful simars.
3. The artisan showcased a range of intricately designed simars at the market.
4. She felt a sense of pride as she draped the simar over her shoulders.
5. Traditionally, the simar is worn during special ceremonies to signify celebration.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/simar>