

SIMILAR

Meaning: Similar: having characteristics in common or being alike in some way.

1. The two paintings are strikingly similar in their use of color and form.
2. Although their backgrounds differ, the themes of the stories are surprisingly similar.
3. She wore a dress that was similar to the one I saw in the magazine yesterday.
4. The results from both experiments were similar, indicating a potential correlation.
5. Despite their differences in style, the musicians produced a similar sound that captivated the audience.
6. The two paintings were similar in style, showcasing the artist's unique brushwork.
7. Although their opinions differed, their concerns about the issue were surprisingly similar.
8. She wore a dress that was similar to the one I had seen at the boutique last week.
9. The twins have similar personalities, but their tastes in music are quite different.
10. In many ways, his approach to problem-solving is similar to that of his mentor.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/similar>