

SIMPER

Meaning: SIMPER: To smile or speak in a coy, ingratiating, or affectedly shy manner.

1. She tried to simper at the compliment, but her embarrassment showed through.
2. His simpering grin made it hard to take his words seriously.
3. The politician's simper during the interview left many viewers feeling skeptical.
4. She couldn't help but simper when he asked her to dance under the stars.
5. Despite her efforts to appear confident, a nervous simper escaped her lips.
6. She tried to simper charmingly, but her forced smile gave her away.
7. His attempt to simper in response to the compliment felt insincere and awkward.
8. The politician's simper during the speech did little to convince the skeptics in the audience.
9. She couldn't help but simper as she accepted the award, overwhelmed by the recognition.
10. Despite her efforts to simper, the tension in the room was palpable and unyielding.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/simper>