

SIMPERING

Meaning: SIMPERING: displaying a coy or ingratiating smile or behavior, often characterized by self-satisfaction or a lack of seriousness.

1. She was simpering at the compliment, clearly enjoying the attention more than she let on.
2. His simpering smile made it difficult to take his words seriously during the discussion.
3. The actress was often criticized for her simpering demeanor in interviews, which some found disingenuous.
4. As he entered the room, the simpering crowd quickly shifted their focus to him, eager for his approval.
5. Despite his simpering tone, there was an underlying sarcasm that caught her off guard.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/simpering>