

SIMULAR

Meaning: Simular: resembling or similar in nature or style.

1. The artist's new painting is simular in style to the works of the famous impressionists.
2. In a simular fashion, the two companies approached the market with innovative solutions.
3. Her argument was simular to the one presented by her colleague, highlighting shared values.
4. The weather patterns this year are simular to those we experienced during the last drought.
5. Many of the themes in the novel are simular to those found in classic literature.
6. The two paintings were simular in style, showcasing vibrant colors and bold brushstrokes.
7. Although their themes differed, the narratives presented in the novels were strikingly simular.
8. Many species in the animal kingdom exhibit simular behaviors when facing predators.
9. The architect designed the new building to have a simular facade to the historic structure next door.
10. Despite their differences, the two cultures share simular traditions and values.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/simular>