

SIMULATOR

Meaning: A simulator is a device or program that replicates real-world processes or environments for training, analysis, or experimentation purposes.

1. The flight simulator provided an incredibly realistic training experience for novice pilots.
2. Many engineers use computer simulators to model complex systems before implementation.
3. In the gaming industry, a driving simulator can offer players a taste of real-world racing experiences.
4. Virtual reality simulators are becoming increasingly popular for training medical professionals.
5. The astronaut training program relied heavily on a state-of-the-art space simulator to prepare candidates for zero gravity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/simulator>