

SINCH

Meaning: 'Sinch' refers to a slight or subtle amount or degree of something.

1. I had a sinch of doubt about the project's feasibility.
2. Her laughter was a sinch of joy that brightened the room.
3. He managed to solve the puzzle with a sinch of cleverness.
4. There was a sinch of regret in his voice as he spoke.
5. The task seemed daunting, but with a sinch of effort, we completed it.
6. Sinch has revolutionized the way businesses communicate with their customers.
7. With its advanced messaging features, Sinch makes it easy to reach audiences globally.
8. The integration of Sinch into our platform enhanced our user engagement significantly.
9. Many companies rely on Sinch for their voice and video communication needs.
10. Using Sinch, developers can create seamless communication experiences in their applications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sinch>