

SINECURISM

Meaning: Sinecurism refers to the practice of holding an office or position that requires little to no responsibility or work, often resulting in a lack of accountability in public service.

1. Sinecurism often leads to a lack of accountability in public office.
2. Critics argue that sinecurism undermines the effectiveness of governmental institutions.
3. The prevalence of sinecurism in certain sectors highlights the inefficiencies in job allocations.
4. Some politicians have been accused of sinecurism, receiving pay for minimal work.
5. To combat sinecurism, reforms are needed to ensure that all roles have meaningful responsibilities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sinecurism>