

SIPAGE

Meaning: SIPAGE: the gradual leakage or seepage of liquid, particularly water, through a surface or material.

1. The old roof showed signs of sipage, leading to water stains on the ceiling.
2. After the heavy rain, we discovered a small sipage near the window frame.
3. The contractor assured us that the sipage problem would be resolved with proper sealing.
4. She noticed sipage in the basement, prompting her to call in a professional.
5. Despite the sipage issue, the house had charm that appealed to many buyers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sipage>