

SIPID

Meaning: SIPID: lacking flavor or taste; bland.

1. The chef's new recipe was surprisingly sipid, lacking the vibrant flavors everyone anticipated.
2. After tasting the sipid broth, the diners agreed it needed more herbs and spices for depth.
3. Her comments during the meeting were sipid, failing to engage or inspire her audience.
4. Despite its sipid appearance, the dish turned out to be a delightful surprise for the guests.
5. The novel's sipid prose made it difficult for readers to stay engaged with the plot.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sipid>