

SIPPLE

Meaning: SIPPLE (verb): To drink a liquid in small amounts, often savoring the flavor.

1. The children gathered around the table to sipple their warm cocoa on a chilly afternoon.
2. After a long hike, I took a moment to sipple from my water bottle, savoring the refreshing taste.
3. She liked to sipple her tea slowly while enjoying the view of the sunset over the mountains.
4. During the picnic, they decided to sipple some lemonade while sharing stories and laughter.
5. He always had a habit of sippling his morning coffee, letting the rich aroma fill the air.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sipple>