

SIPPLING

Meaning: SIPPLING: the act of drinking a liquid slowly and gently, often to enjoy its flavor or warmth.

1. She was sipping her tea slowly, savoring the warmth on a chilly morning.
2. He caught her sipping from the glass, a mischievous smile playing on her lips.
3. After a long hike, we sat by the river, sipping refreshing lemonade from our flasks.
4. The children were sipping their drinks as they watched the sunset, completely mesmerized.
5. In the cozy café, she enjoyed sipping a rich hot chocolate while reading her book.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sipping>