

SIRDAR

Meaning: SIRDAR: A leader or chief, especially in a military context, who commands local troops or guides expeditions.

1. The sirdar led the expedition through the treacherous mountain terrain with confidence.
2. Historically, a sirdar played a significant role in the British Indian Army, overseeing local troops.
3. During the festival, the sirdar addressed the community, emphasizing the importance of unity.
4. As the sirdar of the tribe, she was respected for her wisdom and leadership skills.
5. The sirdar's strategic planning ensured the success of the mission despite unforeseen challenges.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sirdar>