

SIZAR

Meaning: A sizar is a student at a university, particularly in England, who receives financial assistance or provisions in exchange for performing certain duties.

1. The sizar was pleasantly surprised by the generosity of the college's provisions.
2. As a sizar, he had to balance his studies with the duties assigned to him.
3. She often wondered what life would be like as a sizar, managing both scholarship and servitude.
4. The role of a sizar in the university system was both an honor and a challenge.
5. Many famous scholars began their journeys as sizars, overcoming their humble beginnings.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sizar>