

SKETCH

Meaning: Sketch (verb): to make a quick, rough drawing or outline of something.

1. She took a moment to sketch the beautiful landscape in her notebook.
2. The artist decided to sketch a quick outline of her subject before adding color.
3. He always carries a small sketchpad to capture inspiration whenever it strikes.
4. The teacher asked the students to sketch their favorite animal during art class.
5. After a few attempts, he was finally satisfied with the sketch he had created.
6. She quickly made a sketch of the landscape before the sun set.
7. The artist's sketch captured the essence of the bustling city market.
8. During the meeting, he made a rough sketch to illustrate his idea.
9. I love to sketch in my notebook while sitting in a quiet café.
10. Her sketch was so detailed that it looked almost like a photograph.
11. The artist decided to sketch the breathtaking landscape before the sun set.
12. She quickly made a rough sketch of the character for her upcoming graphic novel.
13. During the meeting, he used a whiteboard to sketch out his ideas for the project.
14. The architect presented a detailed sketch of the new building design to the clients.
15. As a warm-up exercise, the students were asked to sketch their favorite animal in five minutes.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/sketch>