

SKID

Meaning: Skid (verb): to slide or slip uncontrollably on a surface, often resulting in a loss of control.

1. The car began to skid on the icy road, causing the driver to lose control.
2. He managed to regain his balance after a brief skid on the skateboard.
3. As the rain fell, the tires struggled to grip the wet pavement, leading to a dangerous skid.
4. She felt a rush of adrenaline as her bike skidded to a halt just inches from the edge of the cliff.
5. The sudden skid on the gravel road startled the passengers, but the driver stayed calm.
6. The car began to skid on the icy road as the driver slammed on the brakes.
7. He lost control of his bike and went into a skid, landing on the pavement with a thud.
8. During the rainstorm, many vehicles were seen skidding off the highway due to poor visibility.
9. The skateboard made a loud noise as it skidded across the concrete surface of the park.
10. She felt her heart race as the truck skidded dangerously close to the edge of the cliff.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/skid>