

SKIRTING

Meaning: Skirting refers to a decorative or protective strip of material, often used at the bottom of walls (as in skirting boards) or the lower part of garments (as in fabric).

1. She wore a flowing dress with a delicate skirting that danced in the breeze.
2. The carpenter installed new skirting boards to give the room a finished look.
3. As the children played, they giggled while skirting around the puddles left by the rain.
4. The skirt on the table was frayed at the edges, hinting it had seen better days.
5. In her speech, she skillfully avoided the main issues, skirting around the real problems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/skirting>